#1. INDEX TO THE EULOGY NOTES OF FRANK KOSTKA

Frank Kostka was a Czech eulogist who presided over 17,000 funerals from 1949 to 1992. His notes were taken on a 3" x 5" card. Each card has information about the person, which he used when giving a meaningful touch to each service. Occasionally there may only be a memorial card and no notes.

#2. INDEX TO THE RECORDS OF LINHART FUNERAL HOME, Cicero, IL from 1913-1954

These are the ledger sheets of the more than 1,730 funerals that took place at the Linhart Funeral Home in Cicero from February 13, 1913 to January 28, 1954. As a rule, one can expect a fairly detailed account of information regarding the funeral home's accounts.

#3. ST. PROCOPIUS DEATH RECORDS 1872-1915

It is possible to obtain a copy of the full death record of a person whose name appears in CSAGSI's publications:
Index to the 1872-1889 Death Records of St. Procopius Church, Chicago, Illinois
Index to the 1890-1915 Death Records of St. Procopius Church, Chicago, Illinois

#4. BOHEMIAN NATIONAL CEMETERY INDEX RECORDS

The Bohemian National Cemetery Burial Card Project has been completed. The records are now obtainable from the CSAGSI Library Collection computers. If you are not able to visit the Collection during the days it is open, we will look up the names you request and send the information to you. Records include the name, place of death, gravesite, interment date, age, and undertaker.

#5. DENNI HLASATEL OBITUARY INDEX 1891-1995

Newspaper obituary index of about 85,000 names published in the newspaper. Microfilmed copies of the actual obituary can be obtained from the Abraham Lincoln Presidential Library or the Center for Research Library. CSAGSI is in the process of obtaining copies of obituaries and would welcome any that you would be willing to donate to our library.
