

MONUMENT TO HEROES

BOHEMIANS WILL UNVEIL THEIR TRIBUTE NEXT SUNDAY.

Ceremonies Will Take Place at the National Bohemian Cemetery Near Irving Park—In Memory of the Bohemian-American Soldiers Who Were Killed in the Civil War—An Interesting Program Arranged—Those Who Will Take Part.

The monument in honor of the Bohemian-American soldiers who were killed in the Civil War, the corner-stone of which was laid two years ago, is completed, and the unveiling ceremonies will take place next Sunday at the National Bohemian Cemetery near Irving Park. It is the intention of the Bohemian Soldiers' Memorial Association to make the occasion dignified and instructive; to teach the young generation and also adopted citizens what hardships had to be overcome, what sacrifices had to be made, and what depth of misery had to be endured for the sake of that liberty which they enjoy, and which in many instances is abused; to inspire love and reverence in them for the American flag, the emblem of liberty. Posts of the G. A. R. and camps of Sons of Veterans of Cook and adjoining counties have been asked to attend the ceremonies as organizations.

BOHEMIAN SOLDIERS' MONUMENT.

Arrangements have been made for special trains and reduced rates of fare. Trains will leave Chicago and Northwestern Depot, corner Wells and Kinzie streets, the first at 10 o'clock a. m., the last at 11 o'clock a. m., for Irving Park; returning trains will leave Irving Park at 3:30 and 4:30 p. m. The fare for the round trip will be 25 cents. Gov. Fifer, Mayor Washburne, the Commander of the Department of Illinois, Grand Army of the Republic, and many distinguished citizens will participate in the ceremonies of the day.

Peter Hand, Frank Steiskal, Daniel P. Bowditch, John E. McGowan, F. A. McDonald, C. E. Vaughan, John C. Barker, Charles A. De Lang, E. S. Johnson, and H. J. Lehman will act on the staff of the Chief Marshal, William Rassman will be aide-de-camp, and Le Roy Van Horn will be chief bugler. All aides-de-camp on the staff of the Chief Marshal will wear the uniform of their respective orders. If civilians they will wear plain dark suit, slouch hat, and white gloves.

The Grand Army posts, camps of Sons of Veterans, and veteran and naval organizations will be under the command of A. J. Mikech, Marshal. The Bohemian societies will be under the command of Joseph Sendelar, Marshal of the Bohemian division.

Grand Army posts, veteran and naval organizations, and camps of Sons of Veterans will assemble at 9 o'clock Sunday morning at Dearborn and Jackson streets. On the arrival of the Bohemian division the column will march to the Chicago and Northwestern depot, Wells and Kinzie streets. The column will move promptly at 9:30 o'clock. On arrival at Irving Park the column will reform in the same manner as at first, and march to the cemetery.

President W. Kaspar and Secretary Jaraslor Lenocho have made full arrangements for the ceremonial, and the following program will be observed:

- Bugle-call..... Maj. Le Roy Van Horn
- Singing..... f..... Bohemian-American Singing Association and Band
- Presentation of flag..... Miss Albina L. Steiskal
- Acceptance..... by Mr. Joseph Kostner
- Address of welcome..... Mr. Joseph Matousek
- Invitation to G. A. R... E. R. Lewis Chief Marshal
- Response on behalf of G. A. R..... H. S. Dietrich
- Singing..... by the Association
- Dedication of the monument..... by G. A. R.
- Singing..... by the Association
- Unveiling..... by Master John Schultz
- Salute..... Bohemian Sharpshooters
- Presentation of monument to the officers of Cemetery by William Kaspar, President of the Bohemian Memorial Association
- Acceptance on behalf of officers of Cemetery..... President Vaclav Mattas
- Bohemian National Song.....
- Bohemian Singing Societies
- Address on behalf of the City of Chicago...
- Mayor Hempstead Washburno
- Address in Bohemian..... Mr. Joseph Cermak
- Address on behalf G. A. R..... Department Commander of Illinois, Edwin Harlan
- Address..... Carter H. Harrison