STREET NEWS.

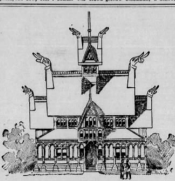

Chicago, May 18, 1893. The street news of today is not very exciting. The market is quiet and the general business is slow. The weather is pleasant and the people are enjoying the spring weather. There is a general feeling of optimism and confidence in the future of the country.

"DAMNED ANIMALS."

The police department has received a report from a citizen that a dog had been seen running through the streets of Chicago. The dog was described as a large, black, and very aggressive. The police are trying to locate the dog and capture it. The citizen who reported the dog is very angry and wants the dog to be put to death.
